MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. L. Dean Brown
Country Director,
Bureau of African Affairs
Department of State

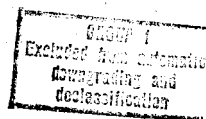

SUBJECT : US Embassy Congo (Kinshasa) Request for Information

1. The information in the succeeding paragraphs is provided in response to a request contained in Incoming Telegram 5040 from US Embassy Kinshasa dated 7 February 1966. The telegram referenced CIA Intelligence Report RR-67-4 The Congo's Latest Crisis - The Takeover of Union Miniere du Haut Katanga. Specifically the Embassy indicated an interest in an expansion of the statement in the CIA report which, in referring to Societe Generale (SG), stated "In addition it has important holdings in Canada, Zambia, and Rhodesia". While the CIA report did not mention SG holdings in Mexico and Peru, as suggested by Embassy Kinshasa, we are including a comment on these.

2. Societe Generale de Belgique is both an investment trust and a development bank which either directly or indirectly guides, finances or controls many businesses throughout the world. This very substantial trust controls both operating companies and other holding companies. In many cases SG holding companies own or have interests in still other holding companies. This sets up an extraordinarily complex and circular organization which is controlled through interlocking directorates.

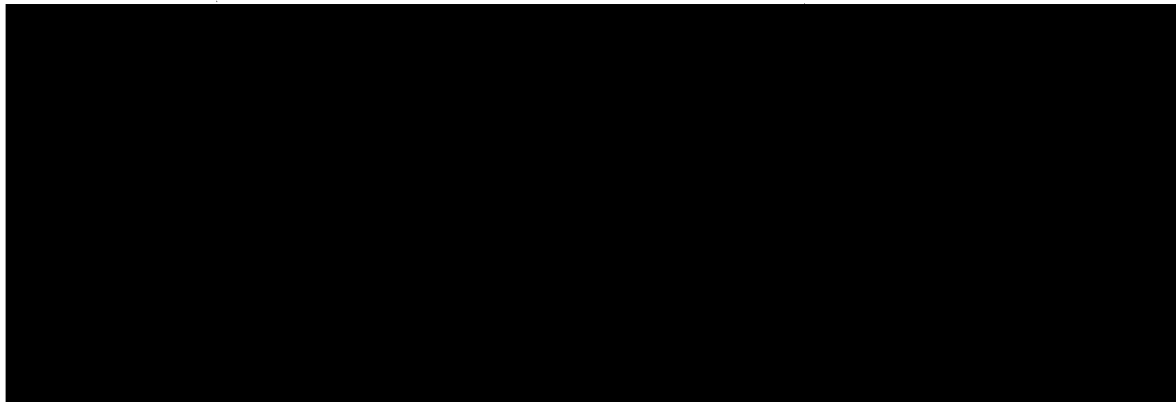

3. In Rhodesia and Zambia, Societe Generale operates mainly through Tanganyika Concessions Limited (TCL). SG owns a part of TCL. For its part, TCL is also a major shareholder in Union Miniere which in turn is controlled by SG and its affiliated companies. Associated companies or companies owned outright by TCL in central Africa include Tanganyika Holdings, Rhodesia-Katanga Co., Zambesia Exploratory and Zambia Investment. These companies hold interests (the exact shareholding is not known) in Anglo-American, the British South African Company, and Rhokana. A recent study of this complex relationship indicates that Tanganyika Holdings and Rhodesia-Katanga hold about a 42% interest in Zambia's Kansanshi copper mine. Also through Union Miniere, SG holds stock in the Wankie Colliery in Rhodesia. Moreover, as indicated in the CIA report TCL owns 90% of the Benguela railroad in Angola.

25X1C

5. While I believe that the above information will meet the needs of Embassy (Kinshasa) we will, of course, respond promptly to any additional requests.
